

Society of Alabama Archivists

16 October 2015

Auburn University
Special Collections and Archives

Society of Alabama Archivists

Annual Meeting, 16 October 2015

8:00 – 9:00 Registration

9:00 – 9:30 Welcome Address

9:30 – 10:30 Concurrent Sessions 1

1.1 You Hear That Little Doohickey?: Documenting Birmingham's Civil Rights Mass Meetings Special Collections and Archives Lecture Area

Laura Anderson (Birmingham Civil Rights Institute)

Jim Baggett (Birmingham Public Library)

1.2 Where Practice Intersects Theory: Developing Student Skills via Hands-on-History Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium

Alabama 200 Anna Traylor (Auburn University)

Remembering Lincoln in Alabama: Collecting Responses to the Assassination at ADAH
Caroline Jones (Auburn University)

Preservation in the 21st Century: An Overview of the New Orleans Historic District
Landmark Commission Caroline Campbell (Auburn University)

Session chair Reagan Grimsley (Auburn University)

1.3 Oral History and the Archives Academic Support Classroom

Digitizing the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement: A Lesson in Access, Preservation, and Collaboration Hayden McDaniel (University of Southern Mississippi)

The Benefits of State and Local Political Oral Histories: A Case Study of George Andrews
III Jaimie Kicklighter (Auburn University)

Session chair Rebekah Davis (Limestone County Archives)

10:30 – 10:45 Break

10:45 – 11:45 Concurrent Sessions 2

2.1 Projects to Document Communities and Institutions

Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium

Between Wallace and Webb: Archiving NASA in the Civil Rights Era

Brian Odom (NASA/Marshall Space Flight Center)

Defining an African Heritage in Alabama

Justin Rudder (Alabama Department of Archives and History)

Session chair Carey Heatherly (University of Montevallo)

2.2 The REAL Work Behind Digitization Special Collections and Archives Lecture Area

To Digitize You First Must Realize: The Archive of Alabama Folk Culture's Digitization Lab at the Alabama Department of Archives and History

Kevin Nutt (Alabama Department of Archives and History)

Dude, Where's My Photo?: Indexing Digitized Materials

Rachel Cohen (Samford University)

Session chair Keri Hallford (Alabama Department of Archives and History)

11:45 – 12:15 Poster Session Outside Special Collections and Archives

More Than Just a Window: How Archives and Museums Work Together

Amy Christiansen and Brian Mast (Center for the Study of the Black Belt)

Moving towards ETDs: From Conception to Fruition, or Wow, That Was Easy

Samantha McNeilly (Auburn University Montgomery)

Alabama Cultural Resource Survey: African-American Culture in Lauderdale County

Ashley E. Pentecost (University of North Alabama)

Dixie Depot Records Tina Bernath and Diane Sowell (Troy University Dothan)

12:15 – 1:15 Lunch/Business Meeting Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium

1:15 – 1:30 Break

1:30 – 2:00 AL200 Presentation Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium Jay Lamar and Donna Baker

2:00 – 3:00 Concurrent Sessions 3

3.1 Alabama Bicentennial Cultural Resource Surveys

Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium

Discussant Taylor McGaughy (Auburn University)

Discussant Dylan Tucker (University of North Alabama)

Session chair Keith Hebert (Auburn University)

Session chair Carolyn Barske (University of North Alabama)

3.2 Using Open-Source Archival Data Management Software at the University of Alabama Libraries Division Of Special Collections

Special Collections and Archives Lecture Area

AT at UA: 2015 Martha Bace (University of Alabama)

We Love Archivists' Toolkit—Can We Love ArchivesSpace, Too?

Donnelly Walton (University of Alabama)

3.3 The Alpha and Omega of Archives: Appraisal and Outreach

Academic Support Classroom

Appraisal: The Heart of the Profession's Identity

Dallas Hanbury (Middle Tennessee State University)

Better Presentation Through Science

Erin Harney (Alabama Power Company Archives)

Session chair Marty Olliff (Troy University Dothan)

3:15 – Tour of Auburn University Special Collections and Archives

Photographs courtesy of Auburn Special Collections and Archives